

LETTER FROM NORMAN V.A. REEVES AND HOWARD RAWLINGS TO ALBIN KUHN

Title

Letter from Norman V.A. Reeves and Howard Rawlings to Albin Kuhn

Description

Norman V.A. Reeves, Counselor, and Howard Rawlings, Instructor of Mathematics, co-chairs of the UMBC Caucus of Black Faculty and Staff, were in contact with Dr. Kuhn about ways to further diversify UMBC. The goal of the Caucus was the creation of a truly egalitarian university." Reeves later served on the Baltimore City Council and Rawlings became a powerful member of the Maryland House of Delegates whose daughter, Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, became Mayor of the City of Baltimore in 2010.

Creator

Reeves, Norman V.A.; Rawlings, Howard P.

Source

President's office records, Collection 50

Date

2/10/1970

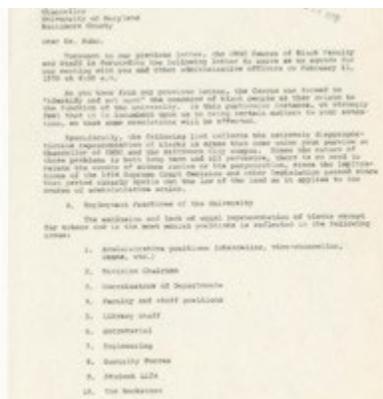

Format

correspondence; 11 x 8.5 in.

Identifier

50UMBC-011

Files

Tags

1970s, 32, Diversity

Citation

Reeves, Norman V.A.; Rawlings, Howard P., "Letter from Norman V.A. Reeves and Howard Rawlings to Albin Kuhn," UMBC 50th, accessed April 1, 2024, <https://umbc50.omeka.net/items/show/1470>.